

ABSTRACT

A snowboard binding includes a highback that is pivotally mounted relative to a 5 base and movable between a riding position and a folded position. In the folded position, the highback may be positioned lower than an uppermost portion of a heel hoop. In one embodiment, all portions of the binding when the highback is in a folded position may lie within a maximum distance of 3 inches or less.

10